The “Homeless Jesus” sculpture is a visual representation of Matthew 25.

The sculpture suggests that Christ is with the most marginalized in our society. The Christ figure is shrouded in a blanket with His face covered with the only indication that the figure is Jesus being the visible wounds on the feet. The life-size version of the work provides enough room for someone to sit on the bench and is cast in bronze metal measuring 36”H x 84”L x 24”D.

Timothy Schmalz is a Canadian sculptor based out of St. Jacobs, Ontario, Canada. He focuses on religious figures and also has many public pieces. Schmalz is best known for his Homeless Jesus that he created in reaction to the many homeless living on the streets. Shmalz has said, "If my sculptures are used by people as a tool to think, then I'm very happy." Installments of his work have brought his visual message across the globe with Homeless Jesus having been displayed in many places including: Papal Charities Building, Vatican City; Christ Church Cathedral, Dublin, Ireland;

Catholic Charities, Washington D.C; Cathedral of the Good Shepherd, Singapore; St. John the Divine Cathedral, New York, New York; Holy Magdalena Church, Bruges, Belgium; St. George's Tron Church, Glasgow, Scotland; Sant'Egidio, Antwerp, Belgium, St. Anne's Square, Manchester, England; Sant'Egidio Headquarters Trastevere, Rome; Capernaum, Israel; Almudena Cathedral, Madrid, Spain.

If you, or someone you know, requires emergency pastoral care please phone the church office ph # 250-247-8633 for further contact information. ## Salisbury Cathedral

“A 'flock' of 3,000 paper doves has arrived in the rafters of Salisbury Cathedral. The impressive display of white birds has flown all around the world from Jerusalem to Berlin and the US, before arriving in Salisbury.

The paper origami birds by artist Michael Pendry have been suspended from the roof of Salisbury cathedral.”

Just over two months after the nerve agent attack in Salisbury and with the clean-up operation underway, the Cathedral...

“Thousands of white doves bring message of peace and hope”
