Lenten Study Series Wednesday 10:00am

We're spending time this season of Lent with the story of Eve and Adam, looking down beneath the layers of original sin to other fruits that live within the text, including our human experience of physical, emotional and spiritual hunger, our human desires and longing.

Today we hear a minute for mission about the work of the wider church. While the church is no longer receiving flow through donations to these organizations, you can donate to them directly by going to the following websites:
