

CCG is seeking a Church Musician

Christ Church Gabriola requires musical accompaniment for congregational singing during Sunday morning services, generally two to three songs and possibly a pre- and post-lude, and for special services. We support a shared work arrangement between one, two or more accompanists; the minimal commitment for each accompanist is one Sunday per month. Our compensation is competitive.

Required Skills

- Proficiency at reading music;
- Proficiency on the piano or other instrument to accompany singers and small ensembles;
- Ability to work collaboratively.

Desired Skills

- Familiarity with traditional and contemporary church music;
- Proficiency in playing the church organ and other musical instruments;
- Ability to lead congregational singing;
- Familiarity with the technology of music production and broadcasting.

Interested musicians are invited to contact Mona Smart for more details and/or to submit a resume at christchurchgabriola@gmail.com 250-247-8633

Christ Church Gabriola is theologically progressive, inclusive, and committed to social justice and service to our island community.
