Hymn: Come Touch Our Hearts

MV #12

¹Come touch our hearts that we may know compassion, from failing embers build a blazing fire;
love strong enough to overturn injustice, to seek a world more gracious, come touch and bless our hearts.

²Come touch our souls that we may know and love you, your quiet presence all our fears dispel;
create a space for spirit to grow in us, let life and beauty fill us, come touch and bless our souls.

³Come touch our minds and teach us how to reason, set free our thoughts to wonder and to dream;
help us to open doors of understanding, to welcome truth and wisdom, come touch and bless our minds.

⁴Come touch us in the moments we are fragile, and in our weakness your great strength reveal;
that we may rise to follow and to serve,
steady now our nerve, come touch and bless our wills.

⁵Come touch us now, this people who are gathered, to break the bread and share the cup of peace;
that we may love you with our heart, our soul, our mind, our strength, our all, come touch us with your grace.

Call to Worship

Gentle and patient

God, you are calling.

Careful and persistent

God, you are calling.

In grieving and in praise

God, you are calling.

Through dawn and midday

God, you are calling.

Unexpected and planned

God, you are calling.

In a still small voice and in power

God, you are calling.

Spontaneous and prepared

God, you are calling.

Willing or protected

God, you are calling.

Our God is eager to share with us, wherever we are in our journey.

We answer the call to be God's people and we live in the ways of Christ.

Come, let us worship God

Opening Prayer

Gracious and all loving God,

you call to us across deep waters and dark places.

Yours is the light which guides us and the voice which we follow.

We pray that you would reveal yourself to us as we worship you.

May those without hope be encouraged;

those who are sad, lifted;

those who are seeking, find you;

and may all things be according to your will.

In the name of Jesus, the Christ we pray. Amen.

Hymn: I Have Called You By Your Name

MV #161

¹I have called you by your name, you are mine;

I have gifted you and ask you now to shine.

I will not abandon you;

all my promises are true.

You are gifted, called, and chosen; you are mine.

²I will help you learn my name as you go;

read it written in my people, help them grow.

Pour the water in my name, speak the word your soul can claim, offer Jesus' body given long ago.

³I know you will need my touch as you go;

feel it pulsing in creation's ebb and flow.

Like the woman reaching out, choosing faith in spite of doubt,

hold the hem of Jesus' robe, then let it go.

⁴I have given you a name, it is mine;

I have given you my Spirit as a sign.

With my wonder in your soul,

make my wounded children whole;

go and tell my precious people they are mine.

Prayers for Renewal

(inspired by John 1:38)

Open our eyes, Jesus, to the world around us.

Show us what we should see but from which we hide our eyes.

Show us how people live in this world and the reality of their days.

Give us courage to do what you ask and to 'Come and see'.

Open our eyes, Jesus, to the shape of your Kingdom.

Show us what life could be like if only we could see in wisdom.

Show us what we could do to change things forever with you.

Give us courage to open our hearts and to 'Come and see'.

Open our eyes, Jesus, to the people all around us.

Show us what we should see, but what we fail to notice.

Show us what people are saying to us and what they long for.

Give us courage to be where you are and to 'Come and see'.

Amen

We Affirm Our Faith: A New Creed

We are not alone we live in God's world.

We believe in God:

who has created and is creating who has come in Jesus the word made flesh to reconcile and make new,

who works in us and others by the Spirit.

We trust in God.

We are called to be the Church:

to celebrate God's presence, to live with respect in Creation, to love and serve others,

to seek justice and resist evil,

to proclaim Jesus, crucified and risen,

our judge and our hope.

In life, in death, in life beyond death,

God is with us. We are not alone.

Thanks be to God.

Prayer Before the Reading of Scripture

Living, Speaking God, open our eyes and our hearts that as we hear your word, we may hear your voice calling us by name; calling us to serve, calling us to share, calling us to praise, so that we never give up on the promise of your kingdom where the world is transformed, and all can enjoy life in all its fullness. Amen.

Scripture: Isaiah 49:1,2,6 (RSV Updated Edition)
The scope of God's Light

Reader: Don Butt

Listen to me, O coastlands; pay attention, you peoples from far away! The Lord called me before I was born; while I was in my mother's womb he named me. God made my mouth like a sharp sword; in the shadow of his hand God hid me. God says, "It is too light a thing that you should be my servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob and to restore the survivors of Israel; I will give you as a light to the nations, that my salvation may reach to the end of the earth."

This is the Word of God

We give thanks for this word today.

Gospel Reading

Reader: Don Butt

As is your custom, please stand or sit for the reading of the gospel.

God be with you.

And also with you

The Good News of Jesus the Christ according to John.

Glory to you, Christ Jesus.

John 1:35–42 (RSV Updated Edition)
The calling of Simon and Andrew.

The next day John again was standing with two of his disciples, and as he watched Jesus walk by, he exclaimed, "Look, here is the Lamb of God!" The two disciples heard him say this, and they followed Jesus. When Jesus turned and saw them following, he said to them, "What are you looking for?" They said to him, "Rabbi" (which translated means Teacher), "where are you staying?" He said to them, "Come and see." They came and saw where he was staying, and they remained with him that day. It was about four o'clock in the afternoon. One of the two who heard John speak and followed him was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother. He first found his brother Simon and said to him, "We have found the Messiah" (which is translated Anointed). He brought Simon to Jesus, who looked at him and said, "You are Simon, son of John. You are to be called Cephas" (which is translated Peter).

This is the Gospel of Christ.

We give thanks for Good News today!

Word: Come and See!

Hymn of Response: Spirit, Spirit of Gentleness

VU #375

[Refrain]

Spirit, Spirit of gentleness, blow thro' the wilderness calling and free, Spirit, Spirit of restlessness, stir me from placidness, Wind, Wind on the sea.

¹You moved on the waters, you called to the deep, then you coaxed up the mountains from the valleys of sleep;
and over the eons you called to each thing:
wake from your slumbers and rise on your wings. [R]

²You swept thro' the desert, you stung with the sand, and you goaded your people with a law and a land;
and when they were blinded with their idols and lies,
then you spoke thro' your prophets to open their eyes. [R]

³You sang in a stable, you cried from a hill, then you whispered in silence when the whole world was still;
and down in the city you called once again,
when you blew through your people on the rush of the wind. [R]

⁴You call from tomorrow, you break ancient schemes, from the bondage of sorrow the captives dream dreams;
our women see visions, our men clear their eyes,
with bold new decisions your people arise. [R]

The Prayers of the People

Susan Brockley

Light of the world,

Hear our prayer.

The Prayer of Jesus

Eternal Spirit, Earth-maker, Pain-bearer, Life-giver,
Source of all that is and that shall be,
Father and Mother of us all, Loving God, in whom is heaven:
The hallowing of your name echo through the universe!
The way of your justice be followed by the peoples of the world!
Your heavenly will be done by all created beings!

Your commonwealth of peace and freedom sustain our hope and come on earth.

With the bread we need for today, feed us.

In the hurts we absorb from one another, forgive us.

In times of temptation and test, strengthen us.

From trials too great to endure, spare us.

From the grip of all that is evil, free us.

For you reign in the glory of the power that is love, now and for ever. Amen

Hymn: Jesus, You Have Come to the Lakeshore

VU #563

¹Jesus, you have come to the lakeshore looking neither for wealthy nor wise ones, you only asked me to follow humbly.

[Refrain]

O Jesus, with your eyes you have searched me, and while smiling have spoken my name;
now my boat's left on the shoreline behind me;
by your side I will seek other seas.

²You know so well my possessions;
My boat carries no gold or weapons;
you will find there my nets and labour. [R]

³You need my hands, full of caring through my labours to give others rest, and constant love that keeps on loving. [R]

⁴You, who have fished other oceans, ever longed for by souls who are waiting,
my loving friend, as thus you call me. [R]

Closing Words: Words of Releasing

(from Celebrate God's Presence, United Church of Canada)

Minister

I thank you, friends and members of Christ Church Gabriola for the love and support you have shown me while I have ministered among and with you.

Let us not forget that the ministry in this place is Christ's ministry entrusted to us as part of his body. Our ministry together always belongs to God and is always on going.

I am grateful for the ways my leadership has been accepted.

I ask forgiveness for the mistakes I have made.

As I leave, I carry with me all that I have learned here.

Congregation

We receive your thankfulness, offer our forgiveness, and accept that you are now leaving us to minister elsewhere.

We are grateful for your time among us.

We ask your forgiveness for our mistakes.

Your influence on our faith and faithfulness will not leave us with your departure.

We release you from your duties of ministry here in our midst, no longer turning to you as we have when you were in ministry among us.

Minister

I accept your thanksgiving and your forgiveness of me.

I forgive you. May our time together and our parting now be pleasing and acceptable to God.

I now release you from turning to me and depending on me.

I encourage your continuing ministry here and will pray for you.

Blessing & Sending

(Iona Abbey)

May God bless you and keep you;

May the light of God's presence shine upon you.

May God's grace go with you in your departing, and give you peace.

May God, who is present in sunrise and nightfall, and in the crossing of the sea, guide your feet as you go.

May God, who is with you when you sit and when you stand, encompass you with love and lead you by the hand.

May God, who knows your path and the places you rest, be with you in your waiting; be your good news for sharing and lead you in the way that is everlasting. Amen

Peace and light be with you.

And also with you.

Hymn: May God's Sheltering Wings

MV #214

May God's sheltering wings, her gathering wings protect you.

May God's nurturing arms,
her cradling arms sustain you,
and hold you in her love,
and hold you in her love.
